

THE CHINA BUSINESS REVIEW

MARCH-APRIL 1992

VOLUME 19, NUMBER 2

A man in a dark blue suit, white shirt, and red and blue striped tie is walking a tightrope. He is holding two long wooden poles to balance himself. On the left pole, a blue money bag with a red dollar sign ($) is attached. On the right pole, a blue money bag with a red yen sign (¥) is attached. The tightrope is supported by a large, white, cylindrical structure on the right. The background is a dark blue gradient with some light blue circular patterns.

Balancing Foreign Exchange

- New protection for intellectual property
- Customs investigates Chinese exports

Zhang Xuan's "Lady Kuo-Kuo and her Sisters Setting Forth on an Outing" (Tang Dynasty, 8th century), reworked in 1989 by Sanna Shao 邵曉娜 in Hong Kong.

A Quest for a New World of Hospitality in China

In old China, travel was restricted to nobility and merchants; trips were long and arduous... and comfortable lodging was hard to find.

Today, there's a New World in Beijing, Guangzhou and Shanghai. All first class hotels where travelling business people enjoy the utmost in comfort, service and style. Convenient locations, well appointed rooms, a wide choice of business support services, recreational facilities and, without doubt, the best restaurants in town.

For fine accommodation and superb hospitality in China, look no further than New World.
